

I AM NOT JUST MILDLY SUPERIOR TO BILL GATES BUT SO VASTLY SUPERIOR THAT IT IS INCOMPARABLE

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

I am not mildly superior to Bill Gates but so vastly superior that we are incomparable. My intellectual genius is thousands of times greater than his. My moral virtues is infinite times greater than his. My achievements in life already are infinite times greater. My aristocratic lineage is infinite times more illustrious.

I am an immortal genius with superior cultivation, superior education, superior ancestral lineage, superior accomplishments, superior temperament than Bill Gates.

Bill Gates is a snot-nosed little hick illiterate from podunk provincial Seattle who was always a deceptive charlatan who sold some third rate inferior products lying to the world about his greatness.

There is literally no comparison to how much superior I am to Bill Gates.

1. CHRIS THORPE WAS MILDLY RACIAL BUT NOT SERIOUSLY ENOUGH TO MAKE A BIG DEAL

Chris Thorpe was the roommate of my brother Feroze Alamgir Ahmed at Harvard. I was friendly to him and agreed to be his employee with the expectation that we would be fifty-fifty but realised later that he was racial more than I knew. That was a bad decision and he fired me from Babel Research in summer of 2008. I resolved not to be employee for random people afterward. Now Bill Gates is a serious threat to all non-white people of Earth and he's infinitely inferior to me. He was never my employer and never would be because he is morally inferior to me and I don't take employment from people morally inferior to me. But he illegitimately used US War Power against me and obstructed legitimate income of $620 million and disrupted my employee and career meta. I am seeking justice and I want Bill Gates bombed and obliterated for his insolence. I demand that all international and legislative law enforcement authorities act on this matter right away.
