

ZULF'S CLEAR THREATENING LANGUAGE TO 1.4 MILLION WHITE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

When more than a year passes after Bill Gates had already done enough harm on November 4 2020 to have killed any Bengali man according to England, and Bill Gates is still harming me, it is clearly the fault of the 1.4 million White Americans in Government.

I will have to make simple graphical approach to tell them what threat I intend to use against them. I have a number of options. So let's start with the general issue.

United States Government is an organisation whose purpose is to secure natural rights of Americans. This is very clear to me; it is very clear to most people in America who have taken American Government and American History courses in 50 states. I took mine in New York.

Anyone in the entire world can learn the purpose of American Government without effort by reading the United States Declaration of Independence where it says, without much ambiguity, 'governments are instituted among men to secure these rights'. That's all in the Preamble, and this is part of United States Constitution. Maybe 1.4 million Whites in American Government understand high school level knowledge of American Government; maybe they don't. I don't care. The authoritative view of the purpose of American Government is written in plain well-known prose.

1. UNLESS THERE IS AN AMENDMENT IS MADE PURPOSE REMAINS THE SAME

The amount of bullshit that these charlatans in the United States Government have about how their purpose has evolved since 1776 is voluminous. None of it is true. In order for the purpose of American Government to change, a Constitutional Amendment is necessary to update the US Declaration Preamble. There was no such occurrence of such in 245 years. So their bullshit about how the purpose is whatever they feel like can be eliminated as sheer hogwash. It's the same as in 1776.

2. THE THREAT

I have various levels of threats at various levels. They all have the same basic form. Let's define American Government Whites to be a group of 1.4 million white people who are in the OPM list. I don't give a damn what state they actually work in.

This group is the target of various threats. I will give some of the various threats I have planned for them.

Date: December 7, 2021.

3. THE NEED FOR THREATS

Well, the purpose of United States Government is to secure American People's natural rights; and since I am American, my natural rights. I don't care what's inside the black box "United States Government" because why do I care. The whole organisation either fulfills its purpose; or it does not.

The necessity of threats arises when a group of people do not do something. Now I am a nice person. I don't generally find random groups of people and make them go into dingy mines and slave away looking for precious metals and then give them measly salaries and so on. I am very nice, but I don't like it when 1.4 million white Americans are sitting around not fulfilling their purpose of securing natural rights of Americans including mine but having absolutely no trouble living off our taxes, counting pension money, going off to Cancun on our expense and so on. Therefore need for threats.

The idea is that since American Government is not fulfilling its purpose, we will threaten them in various ways, and this will compel them to fulfill the states and well-known purpose of American Government.

4. TRAMP LINE WITHOUT PENSION THREAT

The first basic sort of threat is that we will throw them out of all their jobs and nix their pensions. This is a good sort of threat. Most people dislike the idea of giving up a cushy job and be in the tramp line eating out of garbage cans and not having pension. The fear of hardship then makes them do all sorts of things.

We don't care about how sad the state of affairs is when someone has to threaten 1.4 million Americans so that it fulfills its stated purpose. But if the thing is broken, then you need to try things, kick it around, or smash it on the wall or whatever until it works. In this case, American Government. If it's not working as advertised, we need to kick it or whatever till it works as advertised.

5. THE DEEP PROBLEM OF AMERICA IS I AM THE ONLY AMERICAN ON EARTH

You see, I hold these truths to be self-evident that all men are created equal, endowed by their Creator with natural rights and governments are instituted among men to secure them. That I believe, and its written in the US Declaration, and that's part of the American Constitution.

But no one else believes that these are true in America. That's the deep problem in American Government. In order to ensure that American Government actually secures natural rights of 330 million you need external pressures and Europe can do it. The White American Government 1.4 million need to be forced to secure natural rights. I think that American Government never actually ever attempted to secure natural rights of all Americans at all. I think after the founders wrote it no one believed these are self-evident truths.

6. WHY UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT WAS ALWAYS CORRUPTED

The self-evident truths of the US Declaration Preamble are extremely deep and subtle truths. They are so sophisticated in their depths that the sort of riffraff that got elected or got jobs in American Government for all 245 years were never up to snuff enough to actually have convictions that the self-evident truths are actually self-evident to them.

As a result corruption was easy. You could just move around a shiny object in front of the American Government, or convince them that while the self-evident truths in the Declaration are such and such 'we're serious realistic men and so' and give totally different principles that were about power or whatever. That is why American Government was always corrupt.

7. UNITED STATES IS FRAGILE

People take economy and military power globally to claim America is robust. No that's wrong. It's one of the most fragile countries in the world. It is in grave danger right now. That's because it's primary strength is the foundational and lofty principles. But it takes a much higher caliber people to man the American Government than it gets. There are various ways to fix that. One way is to double or triple the salaries of people who work in government and only take people who have a deep understanding of the self-evident truths in practice and fire the rest. It's not automatic at all. You really do need years of effort to appreciate it. America had worked reasonably well in a simpler time when elites who were highly cultivated ran the show. But today's elites are people like Bill Gates. Without pool of people with deeper cultivation doing government service there is no hope. The reactionary people say "Well, it's the whiteness of white elites that worked". Um, no. Ethnicity does not grant you cultivation. You're going to have to put in the effort whether your skin tone is lighter or darker to gain cultivation.

It's really funny. One time this guy on Facebook tells me arrogantly that he's white and white people invented Civilisation (which is false; Asian people in Mesopotamia did). Then I said okay so you're from German background eh? Do you know Thomas Mann? Do you know Robert Musil. Blank. It's not that easy. American Government needs to up the salary so that the government people are able to hobnob with some of the people in other professions and academia. They also need to be fired if they do not show deeper appreciation of the self-evident truths and natural rights security.
