

MEIN KAMPF: ZULF IS NOT STRUGGLING AGAINST OPPRESSION BUT INCOMPETENCE

Bill Gates cut up my eyes and transgressed against my Blood meta and my Deep Interior and used Enslavement and Conquest Meta. Perhaps if this were 1790 I would be fighting against Oppression of the White Man who enslaves me. Well that is not actually the case. Bill Gates in 2021 is just a totally criminal white supremacist cunt and I am not struggling against Oppression of Bill Gates. I am in a lot of pain and he did starve me of all money and income. But he's just violating my Natural Rights and many many US Laws deliberately. I am not fighting for 'equality' with him either. I am far better educated and superior to the fuck. He made some money by deceiving and huckstering but he's not my equal. I'm better. So what I am fighting against is Incompetence of the US Government that seems not to understand that I will execute the whole lot of the US Government officials if they fail to secure my Natural Rights against a malevolent criminal operator. I am not racial, and neither is the United States. United States is, was, and always will be a Multi-Ethnic Classical Liberal Democratic Republic. My struggle is not against the white man's domination etc. My struggle is getting a bunch of moronic incompetent weepy sentimental fucks in United States Government to learn some fifth grade issues about what the US Declaration actually says is the purpose of the US Government, note carefully that my American status was actually signed and sealed by US Government Agencies, give up their weepy sentimentality about the Evil Murderous Criminal Bill Gates, and wipe out the murderer before he manages to permanently damage my health and life.

1. LETTER ABOUT MARTIN LUTHER KING BIRMINGHAM 1963

US GOVT IS NOT COMPELLING AT ALL ABOUT KILLING HIM Inbox

US Govt, you are not doing a great job securing my Natural Rights. My head hurts nonstop from all the power meta and poisoning of blood and many other things Bill Gates has done. Bill Gates believes that he is immune because he is white and no matter what you say, he believes you will actually allow him to kill me and not get in his way. Now I am not all that racial, but I could invoke Martin Luther King Jr.'s comments about WHITE MODERATES. Let me find it. "Letter From Birmingham" from 1963.

We know through painful experience that freedom is never voluntarily given by the oppressor; it must be demanded by the oppressed. Frankly, I have yet to engage in a direct action campaign that was "well timed" in the view of those who have not suffered unduly from the disease of segregation. For years now I have heard the word "Wait!" It rings in the ear of every Negro with piercing familiarity. This "Wait" has almost always meant "Never." We must come to see, with one of our distinguished jurists, that "justice too long delayed is justice denied." We have waited for more than 340 years for our constitutional and God given rights. The nations of Asia and Africa are moving with jet-like speed toward gaining political independence, but we still creep at horse and buggy pace toward gaining a cup of coffee at a lunch counter. Perhaps it is easy for those who have never felt the stinging darts of segregation to say, "Wait." But when you have seen vicious mobs lynch your mothers and fathers at will and drown your sisters and brothers at whim; when you have seen hate filled policemen curse, kick and even kill your black brothers and sisters; when you see the vast majority of your twenty million Negro brothers smothering in an airtight cage of poverty in the midst of an affluent society; when you suddenly find your tongue twisted and your speech stammering as you seek to explain to your six-year-old daughter why she can't go to the public amusement park that has just been advertised on television, and see tears welling up in her eyes when she is told that Funtown is closed to colored children, and see ominous clouds of inferiority beginning to form in her little mental sky, and see her beginning to distort her personality by developing an unconscious bitterness toward white people; when you have to concoct an answer for a five-year-old son who is asking: "Daddy, why do white people treat colored people so mean?"; when you take a cross county drive and find it necessary to sleep night after night in the uncomfortable corners of your automobile because no motel will accept you; when you are humiliated day in and day out by nagging signs reading "white" and "colored"; when your first name becomes "nigger," your middle name becomes "boy" (however old you are) and your last name becomes "John," and your wife and mother are never given the respected title "Mrs."; when you are harried by day and haunted by night by the fact that you are a Negro, living constantly at tiptoe stance, never quite knowing what to expect next, and are plagued with inner fears and outer resentments; when you are forever fighting a degenerating sense of "nobodiness" — then you will understand why we find it difficult to wait. —

First, I must confess that over the past few years I have been gravely disappointed with the white moderate. I have almost reached the regrettable conclusion that the Negro's great stumbling block in his stride toward freedom is not the White Citizen's Council-er or the Ku Klux Klanner, but the white moderate, who is more devoted to "order" than to justice; who prefers a negative peace which is the absence of tension to a positive peace which is the presence of justice; who constantly says: "I agree with you in the goal you seek, but I cannot agree with your methods of direct action"; who paternalistically believes he can set the timetable for another man's freedom; who lives by a mythical concept of time and who constantly advises the Negro to wait for a "more convenient season." Shallow understanding from people of good will is more frustrating than absolute misunderstanding from people of ill will. Lukewarm acceptance is much more bewildering than outright rejection.

Now the issues here are a little different. Here I am interested in Natural Rights security for my beloved people the Human Race, of eight billion, and I won't do any mass demonstrations. But I am quite as much disappointed by the 'white moderates' in US Government as Martin Luther King, Jr. was because Bill Gates who violated my Natural Rights so horrendously, in such an evil and abominable manner, that justice demands that he be slain with burning at the stake, and in excruciating pain to match that which I have suffered. And your tepid pussy cat handling of Bill Gates' outrageous crimes against me with soprano voices saying "Tee hee hee we'll kill you" as though all your balls have disappeared the moment a rich white prominent man is the criminal murder-plotter. He does not believe you and neither, frankly, do I. You have to do quite a bit more than this for that.

Thankfully, I am quite willing to execute the whole lot of you for desecrating the US Declaration. See I am not Reverend Martin Luther King. I do not say "I have a dream" about this. I say instead, you don't want to conform to US Declaration? DIE MOTHERFUCKERS!

You see, I do have a dream or two, but they don't have to do with this.
