

ZULF SAVOURS MY VAST SUPERIORITY OVER BILL GATES

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

I have never had the habit of denigrating even small rabbits throughout my life. But Bill Gates is such a horrible abominable vile evil cunt that I have to take some time to savour my vast superiority over Bill Gates. First of all, his over-rated involvement with the PC revolution of the 1970s is so insignificant compared to the grandeur and the delights that I anticipate in my revolution, the Global Life Satisfaction Revolution.

I do not want to take away credit from Martin E. P. Seligman, Robert Emmons, and the great people who have sparked the Positive Psychology movement. They will have their due credit in the Global Life Satisfaction Revolution.

Bill Gates was a small illiterate man with interest in money and power, and he has achieved something. Let me think about whether I wanted to find out about his being a racial supremacist with plans to re-enslave black people and re-colonise the non-white peoples of the world. He cut into my eyes and caused devastation that might have literally killed me, and is considered by Antonio Guterres as Crimes Against Humanity.

I am of course an Immortal Genius for my success in Four-Sphere Theory which completes a program that Einstein was only grasping for in the dark and so was Hermann Weyl. And on the same year as they died, Bill Gates was born. My immortality was set already, even if I was not celebrated at all in the past five years in public.

Well, I think the following. My work showing that Ethnicity Effects on Human Nature Morals is bounded to 6.5-9.5% is very important for the future of my Beloved People the Human Race. In a sense, Bill Gates is literally my mortal political enemy, for I strongly believe that there is no fundamental difference between white people and non-white people and racial supremacy theories are all standing in quicksand. I had deep convictions about this my entire life, and I have had European lovers, and my sweetheart at the moment is a beautiful Russian woman. In a sense, I would have felt a bit of a spectator if it turned out that someone else had discovered that Bill Gates is a racial supremacist of extremely strong convictions who has been plotting to produce a change in the world order. Now I do not want to be in the front line of any malevolent creepy racial supremacist cunt because I never liked those old Nazi movies and found them icky. But it's different when you are directly in harm's way without any previous knowledge.

To all the white people who are racial supremacists, I will warn you to get out of that as soon as possible; life is not as safe for you as you might imagine because people who are mistreated by racists are not happy campers. They will nuke your asses and wipe you off the planet and believe me white power etc. for nuke control will not be enough. Do not provoke the anger of a world torn asunder for several centuries by this crap. People will just nuke your asses, and they will be right to do that. The world is not what it was in the nineteenth century. You won't be dealing with Black Panthers and such. You will be dealing with global alliances that decide you are threats and barbarians and terminate the lot of you by simultaneous nuclear strikes. It's not Cold War any more.

1. VARIOUS FORMS OF EGALITARIAN IDEOLOGIES

The American Declaration begins with "all men are created equal". I consider this to be true, that we are certainly born equal in many senses. Certainly in legal sense, that we are equal before the Lady Justice. We are also different in our exact genetic composition.

There is the Osho form, where I am not superior to you and you are not superior to me. That works too for me generally. I do not claim random superiority over people because that is just not particularly civilised behaviour.

Bill Gates is one of the few people in the world against whom I have to actually claim superiority. One day there might be other people. I generally do consider myself superior to murderers and other criminals. Now Bill Gates has murdered many people in the past five decades so he is a murderer. He kills 'little guys' with esoteric power meta. That's a relief, in a sense because claiming superiority to Bill Gates was necessary, and it is clear and obvious, for I am morally superior to him. And since he is vile and barbaric and continuously repeats 'whites are superior' in my meta, and I don't have animosity against white people, I just retaliate with a single target, that I am superior to Bill Gates. This is a better position because I don't have to do any ethnic strife in the process. My position is that Human Race is a single race to which both Bill Gates (barely) and I (pretty strongly) belong and I am superior to him and racial issues do not matter. I am just much better as a man.
