ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

Look I don't like people who have ethics problems. New York Times was attacked as fake news by Donald Trump and I supported them but now I am having severe difficulties with them. They make it sound like making $1 million per year running 15 homeless shelters is a big deal. I was homeless myself and I can assure you with 100% certainty that it is not a big deal. They give good press to one of the worst disgusting horrible evil savage destructive beasts, Bill Gates, who is planning genocide and massive slavery, and they pick on some small potato like Jack A. Brown with huge front-page banners.

They deceived the entire planet with all sorts of pictures of Muslims on their front page during September 11 2001. They are basically faux liberal. They lied to the entire nation and the world in the most brazen world that directly led to two decades of destructive wars that killed millions in Iraq.

No wonder they are attacked as fake news. They are more concerned with seeming like they are doing crime fighting with Jack A. Brown while they give all manner of accolades to a racial mass murderer like Bill Gates.
