

CONTOURS FORMING OF A GLOBAL IDEOLOGICAL WAR: BILL GATES' IDEALS VERSUS ZULF'S

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

Let's take Cold War as a paradigm of an ideological war. It was Capitalism versus Communism. It was over by the time I was in my late teens. Now I was not actually deeply involved in it. My parents lived in a different mindset which was not Cold War oriented, and I assimilated to American culture in my teens when Cold War was about to end.

The ideological war between Bill Gates' ideals and mine is something new. Bill Gates' bizarre viewpoint of White Tribe rule of the world is not totally unknown. I don't care if it's good or not good for who else, but I don't want it. I represent other ideals such as Single Human Race. Bill has money, but he is the most evil malevolent degenerate morally vacuous lying cunt in history. So here his strategic ideals are complemented by a Character that is so totally despicable that he is literally an Hellspawn Abomination. As far as I am concerned, my joy at this is unconstrained. Because if he were actually a heroic Character, like a Richard the Lionheart, then I'd be in trouble. He's so bad that I can be Richard the Lionheart better than him even though he is English-Scottish ethnic and I am Bengali-Persian ethnic. Now that is really funny. It's really funny that I can appreciate the great Courageous heart of Richard the Lionheart better than the white supremacist. If you don't find this one of the funniest things in all of history your sense of humour is seriously challenged. That is funny. You have a goddam White Supremacist whose non-white opponent appreciates the greatness of Richard the Lionheart more than him!

In fact that is so funny I have to take a break from sniffing. What sort of White Supremacist does not actually think Virtues of Richard the Lionheart is praiseworthy and instead says "morality is a hoax"? And that is precisely the sort of tone deaf quality regarding human moral nature that is very good news for the opposing ideology, which is Single Human Race Universalism and Natural Rights being secured for 7.8 billion people and so on. I could have been a worse Character in morals than Bill Gates and then it would not matter if my ideals and ideology were better than his; I'd still lose because Character is everything. I happen to be a far superior moral Character than him. What he has going for him is that he has money and he has managed to convince Americans that he is a good man. That's not enough. He better clear up and show some serious Virtuous Character if he wants to enter the ring with me, otherwise he can kiss his ideology goodbye from Earth.
