WRITES OPEN LETTER TO UKRAINE

Dear Ukraine,
I want to teach you something. This is my quite dismissive attitude towards nation states.

You put your arm away from the body a little bit, and you flap around the hand up and down. While you do that, you have to say, "Oof! These little nation states!" You are not supposed to display any contemptuous sneer. Just plain exasperation.

Now practice with me. You can include United States, Russia, any nation at all. Big, small, does not matter.

Date: March 2, 2022.
