

THE ARCHANGEL'S TALE LIKE CHAUCER'S THE KNIGHT'S TALE BUT NOT FICTION

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

For around fifty years, I have been on this primitive Angelic World. Earth, the locals call it. The race is Angelic, I found out by hard work, but primitive, doesn't know it's a single race yet. I know, I know, you're too sophisticated and can't even believe that places like that exist in the universe. And I don't blame you, because I've been an Archangel for billions of years, and I was thinking well, I want to relax a bit, and I'll have a life on Earth. I thought I was quite prudent, and chose an old aristocratic family in Bengal, that's the Eastern part of the little blue planet, the family was not wealthy but was well-regarded. Had some kings and such in the past but at least a thousand years ago. Well, so I am born here and if you're not familiar with Archangel Zulf (I go by that here but if you know me you know me by other names too), then I'll tell you that I am extremely sophisticated about my choice of family of birth. I hate being born too close to power. November 19 1973. The global power center was Washington DC, thousands of miles away. In fact Vietnam War was raging nearby, and no one would have noticed me at all. Obviously I did not want to be noticed, as you well know, Archangels are murdered very very fast if they are detected near capitals of power. Ah, you're not familiar with our adventures. Well I won't go into it. Watch George Lucas' film "Star Wars". We're the sort of cats that Han Solo considers having delusions of grandeur. They don't even know anything about Archangels on Earth. That's a relief for me. Being a high falutin Archangel in a less primitive world would land a huge amount 'gotta do this and gotta do this, and by the way, also get rid of hunger and poverty, we expect Heaven to send competent Archangels around here.' Yeah, the nerve of some entitled worlds huh? Earth is not like that at all. I was going to give some elementary knowledge and some minor trifles for gifts to the Human Race, and they'd be happy with it. It's so nice to be dealing with primitive deprived races, you know?

I will take up this issue of a scrub Demon who is obviously an outcast from various Demon Worlds accosting a high ranking Archangel. The moment I die, I will find the Demon Lords of the Universe or maybe one of the Demon Lords of local Galaxies and complain about this breach of treaties. How dare one of their scrub Demons assault me on my vacation on Angel turf. This is an Angelic Race world. I personally had to put in huge amounts of effort to verify that despite all sorts of theories floating around, their Thomas Hobbes quarelling with their Jean-Jacques Rousseaus and such local primitive lore, that indeed this is an Angelic World. Now I will tell you that I am totally outraged. Did I tell you that not even some million years ago, I was having a good decent life in a Republic World, having a fine family. I can't remember if this is one where I had pointy ears like Elves or Vulcans or not.

Date: January 24, 2022.

And without warning Demon forces exploded the star. I died along with some billions in the planet. I was cursing Demon kind all the way out of that mess.

We have treaties with Demons. We have so many agreements and treaties, and not all Demons are as tasteless as this wretched Bill Gates. I am outraged that this Demon assaults me in an Angelic World during my peaceful vacation. There is no message from Demon Lords with "Ah, Monsier Archangel Zulf, please forgive our manners here but one of our own, Bill Gates is a tycoon in the world you're at, and you should beware." No phone calls, no warning, nothing, and suddenly a Demon is murdering me in broad daylight.

How did this even happen? I will give the Demon Lords a piece of my mind, let me tell you right now. So many treaties are breached here. When was the last time we wiped out some of their planets? I won't go into this, this is an impressionable Angelic World and they don't need to know that Archangels do wipe out planets filled with various Demonic people. It's not common ok? What do you want me to say, Archangels of Heaven are nice? We're not always nice, ok? We do have some bad habits too.
