

US EXECUTIVE WHITES WHY CAN'T YOU MAKE THE OBVIOUS DECISION EVERY OTHER NATION CAN MAKE?

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

US Executive Whites, do a consider, why don't you, and you will find that in every goddam country in the world, Bill Gates would be killed. You should have made the decision to authorise lethal military force and relentlessly bombed him and obliterated him physically along with his wealthy white backers a year ago. Do you have any idea how stupid you look for not making the decision that any country in the world would make in two microseconds the moment they found the man breached my blood meta? India explicitly told you that when a man breaches blood meta in india, criminal intent is clear and they arrest or kill the criminal. In America, I have asked you repeatedly for an entire year to do this and you still cannot make a simple trivial decision. People in Europe and Asia will obviously consider you clinically mentally challenged. Why do you destroy your reputation like this? I don't understand this at all. You will be considered dumber than dodos in every single country in Europe and Asia, South America, Africa and you already know that in no other country would Bill Gates not be killed.
