

ZULF ON OUR POSSIBLE FUTURE WITH SATURATION OF LIFE SATISFACTION FOR 7.8 BILLION

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

1. THE SHABBINESS OF THE BILL GATES OF THE WORLD

One day in the not too distant future, a century or less, across the world, Life Satisfaction of my Beloved People, the Human Race will be so tightly saturated by the efforts of some pioneers that you can't shave off 0.1 bp from the Capital Markets for Life Satisfaction Derivatives without Finance Acrobatics that would give shivers to Harry Houdini.

And when that day comes, people will look at the Life of Bill Gates with pity and sorrow, and his story will induce Catharsis among the young of how dismal life was before the changes that some pioneers had made. He will be seen as cousins of various Charles Dickens figures, Oliver Twist and the others, as his life and times merge with the foggy history of our awful past.

People want to live their short lives with meaning and dignity, and we know quite a bit about the factors of Life Satisfaction. I have shown not long ago that Virtues do have a positive impact on Life Satisfaction. I won't do the numerics, but I am quite confident that Excel, Word and Powerpoint decrease Life Satisfaction and do not increase them.

Why this is possible is of course because this is a Primitive Age of Man. People do not have any goddam perspective. They are myopic. I suggest making a chip to measure snip DNA only for as cheap as possible, why? We don't give a fuck about raping and plundering the money from the poor. We are not proud of being predatory cunts, vampires and leeches on the blood of all sorts of victims. We are not parasites on the good people of the world. We are great men who are here to make the lives of our Beloved People actually genuinely better. What are we going to do? Are we really going to guess and tell people lies? Or are we going to get precise data about their genetic uniqueness, return to the drawing board and craft the magic that will change their lives in ways they cannot even comprehend and not be arrogant but humble because we are serious people with serious purpose to improve out brothers' and sisters' lives. We do not beg for respect of the people. We earn it fair and square. We do not manipulate and lie in our self-promotion showing people books that we did not read and whose premises we are against and then in secret we are malevolent against Natural Rights because it's loftiness is so far out of our puny hearts and souls that we think it's "PR".

No we are for real. We do not waste our short lives being small and puny, without great hearts and minds and great gifts for our people. We are not that type. We would have slit our throats gladly out of shame if we were, ok?
