

HOW WILL BILL GATES COMPETE WITH ME IN PUBLIC SENTIMENT IN EUROPE AT ALL?

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

In Europe, I have an ex-lover who has benevolent feelings toward me, Sine Jensen of Denmark, I have a benefactor, Christine Lagard who is French-Jewish and a leader in Finance, and I gave something of value to Denmark and Sweden to ease their relationship with the entire Islamic World. Now I am quite profoundly fond of Percy Bysshe Shelley and many English poets and writers, along with some artists. So I can then gain popularity in England.

Now Bill Gates wants all Europeans to share his ignorant and stupid racial views. That's not feasible. People's prejudices can be changed, but I can assure you that if you grow up in London, in Berlin, or Paris, you will not be impressed by the prejudices of a high school educated man from podunk provincial Seattle with ignorant and stupid views of ethnicity at all. Europe has a longer history and greater education about the cultures of the world than Bill Gates does.

Beside, Bill Gates is not a good coder at all. All of Europe can see that my code is good [?]. They have never seen Bill Gates' code. All of Europe will find out that he lied about his SAT score. Mine was 1450 on a second test. His was 1290 but he lied to the world and said it was 1590. No one respects liars and I tell the truth and he does not.

So how is he going to compete with me in Europe exactly?
