

LETTER TO MELINDA ANN FRENCH

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

I don't know Madam Melinda Ann French, but just for the sake of exposition of my views about some issues, I am glad to make an effort to make my views known to her. They are unapologetic and authentic. I will tell you about my views of women.

You see, women are, to me extremely wide in their differences and uniqueness. I do not consider them with exactly the same scale at all. The only thing that unites women really in my own manner of viewing the world is that they are female, and so their physiology differs from males. Other than that I think the variety of women are so outrageously overwhelming that I do not even imagine having any sort of stereotype for women at all. This is not accidental. My aunt with whom I am living at the moment is so outrageously different from her older sister, my mother, so deeply different, that I would not even consider ever women to fit any mold. You see, I know these two women from birth, and others as well. My aunt is a totally impossible denigrating bitch who is always constantly using people and her personality is abhorrent to me to the extent that I feel that I would have hated women all my life if she were my mother. Fortunately, my mother is a profoundly better woman.

Anyway, some people say you have to respect women. Well I don't agree. I think you have to respect women who do not deserve to be disrespected, and there are plenty of women who deserve to be disrespected. I was simply extremely fortunate to have come across, from early childhood some women who deserve veneration and adoration for their saintly and wonderful demeanour. My maternal grandmother and Lys K. Waltien were so profoundly influential for me that I had role models for truly great women.

I am a gentleman, but I do not respect all women at all. I keep most women far far away from my gates, and are polite and civil and very distant from them. I have little interest in doing more. I am capable of formal respect and that is all I will be able to provide most women unfortunately. I have no interest to be the knight in shining armour for arbitrary women I do not know. There are very few women who will even enter through the gates to my world at all, and then things become more sophisticated. They will be ejected extremely efficiently if they are not ladies of virtue and nobility.

But on the streets, I don't tolerate disrespectful behaviour at all from any women or men. They don't know me. If they are denigrating I will be extremely rude and unapologetic. I grew up in New York and know how to deal with that.

1. THAT'S AN AMUSING ONE: NON-WHITE LASCIVIOUSNESS

You see, Madam French, Asian men are far less lascivious than White Men. In fact all non-white men are far less lascivious than White men. This is not a prejudice but a fact. White boys have the highest rape rates in the world by an order of magnitude compared to everyone else. But they tell everyone about horrible lasciviousness of non-white men to scare people and make themselves look better. I don't fall for this, and for white women who buy into this, I say good, because they are too dumb to be part of my posse.

That is correct White Men tell lies about lascivious nature of non-white men as a mating strategy with white women. It's a generalised sabotage of sexual rival writ large. It is effective to some extent because it re-orientes white women's minds who then reject a class of men as potential mates thereby giving the white men exclusivity for sexual access to white women. I have only had Western lovers, all white except a single black lover. Constance Young, who was working at Goldman Sachs and was born in Louisiana. I was a professional with a Princeton education so I was spared some of these sorts of prejudices from white women. But the strategy is just individual sexual rivalry strategy scaled up. As a non-white man, I think it's good. I don't want to deal with women who are stupid enough to believe those things. You see, I am an immortal genius. I don't want to merge my genes with lower intellect idiots who look pretty.

2. FIRST EVIDENCE: EXTRAORDINARILY HIGH RAPE RATES OF WHITE MEN

White men have the highest rape rate in the world, often 10-15 times higher. The American Rape rate is literally 10 times higher than India's Rape Rate. Nowhere in the African continent or in Asia will you find anything close to the Rape Rates of White Americans and the Northern Europeans.

	Region	Rate
1	Africa	21.20
2	Caribbean	71.00
3	North America	98.00
4	South America	38.00
5	Asia	9.90
6	Oceania	70.00
7	Western Europe	44.00
8	Southern Europe	10.20
9	Northern Europe	58.70
10	Eastern Europe	9.80

I took the data from UN [1]. These are averages for rates, in 100,000 per year skipping missing data from 2003-2017. It is clear that North America, Oceania, Caribbean, and Northern Europe are top rape rates, and also lasciviousness.
