

OPEN LETTER TO UNITED STATES STATE DEPARTMENT

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

Dear United States State Department,

I hear from John Sununu that you assumed that I was Muslim and then applied some sort of anti-Muslim policy against me. First of all, you cannot determine what religion someone is by just reading their name. What sort a stupid numbskull organisation are you running using our American taxpayer money anyway. In order to check if someone is Muslim, you have to examine whether they accept that there is only one true God, that Muhammad was his prophet and various other things. You never asked me if I was Muslim. Did it ever occur to you that I might have been born to Muslim parents and then turned Atheist at six in 1979? I never got any phone call or any questionnaire. Kindly remove me from your list of Muslims. No, I am not Muslim. Incompetent little brats sucking American tax-payer money for not doing a goddam useful thing.

Thank you,

Zulfikar Moinuddin Ahmed
