

OPEN LETTER TO DENMARK

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

Denmark notices that I do not accuse any European of malevolent intentions toward myself. Well, good, Denmark. I am a noble and aristocratic soul and do not randomly accuse all sorts of things. This Bill Gates has deliberately harmed me without cause, with murderous intent, and that is why I accuse him of evil and criminal intent and consider him a rotten scumbag who deserves to be slaughtered immediately and does not deserve to live. I have never been harmed by any European at all. Why would I accuse Europeans without cause. I am rather fond of Thomas Mann and Rainer Maria Rilke and Robert Musil and I had a Dane as a lover who was sweet and kind to me. I am not a third rate peasant stock man who accuses people of things without cause.

Indeed, I am precise. I do not accuse people of good Character who are good and just of all manner of bad things. I justly dispense and judge bad people as bad people and good people as good people just as any noble gentleman ought to. What do you take me for? I have three thousand years of Vedic Aristocracy in my blood. I love my beloved people the human race and Europeans are not excluded.
