

HOW UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IS CORRUPT BEYOND ALL IMAGINATION

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

Bill Gates routinely and habitually uses power considers that are not just against American Law, but death penalty worthy. He believes, roughly correctly that because he is white (and wealthy) he will never be put to death. And United States government continuously proves him right and encourages him by not putting him to death. He literally says 'I'm white so I won't face any penalty.' The highly corrupt American government officials continuously leave him alone.

The result of what the American Government officials have done by not bringing him to justice for five decades is put American people's lives at risk totally sabotaging the purpose of governments in the US Declaration of Independence. They continuously have reinforced Bill Gates belief that he is immune from criminal law for 50 years and they are partly responsible for this savage monstrous destructive monster that is Bill Gates. They have shown the greatest incompetence in governance that any government that any country in the world around the world, and any country that is even remotely civilised in the past of the human race. No more corrupt government has ever existed from my experience of United States Government and Bill Gates the horrible racial mass murderer is a creation of the American Government by reinforcement of all his criminal tendencies with impunity.

1. NO EXAGGERATION HERE

A High Level US Government consider showed that Bill Gates would have been killed for his meta crimes (e.g. cutting into a man's deep interior and harming their body with US War meta) in every single country in the world but he is untouched in America. It is not hyperbole that American Government is, when it comes to criminal law enforcement against wealthy white people, the most corrupt in the world today. In fact it is the most corrupt government in all of history, for no government in world's history has literally given great respectability to a mass murdering criminal in any part of the world. In America this criminal is treated as a great and honoured and revered man. It is so outrageous that people do not even have comprehension of it.

2. AMERICAN GOVERNMENT IS SO OUTRAGEOUSLY CORRUPT THAT AMERICANS DO NOT BELIEVE IT

There are 220 million white Americans. They are psychologically unable to understand how murderous Bill Gates is because his PR about himself was believed. The US Government does not understand how corrupt it is. But the rest of the 8 billion people can see it without trouble because they do not live in the American bubble. And so the rest of the 8 billion people will adjust eventually to accepting that American Government is more corrupt than any in history and the world will move on.

You see, maybe a charlatan like Bill Gates can fool large numbers of gullible fools with PR, but in fact one's reputation is in the end based on what is the case and not what is the projection and fake image. And the case is that American government is more corrupt than any government past or present when dealing with wealthy white mass murderous criminals. And that is interesting to people in Asia and Europe. That is extremely interesting and curious. People will love to know that.
