

ZULF CLEARS UP MAJOR ISSUES OF OUR MIDEAST CONFLICTS

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

Pay attention, for even Zulf was quite confused about some of these things for decades. First of all, neoconservatives in Washington, without any specific provocation from Islamic groups, had plotted a number of American wars in the Middle East from the 1995. Neoconservatism is not a Jewish movement. It is an American movement that was influenced by political Zionism but is American and most neoconservatives are not Jewish although some of the prominent leaders are. So neoconservatives in Washington produces plots for American wars in the Middle East well before 9/11 for a post-Soviet World Order. This was not in reaction to many Islamic terror acts against Americans on American soil. It was just for other sorts of geopolitical reasoning.

I did not know this at all in 2002-3. Then war plans were classified in Washington. Now separately Israel's Mossad chief Isser Harel always thought that it would be a good idea if Israel blew up some buildings in America and blamed it on Muslims. He was thinking about this from late 1970s, that wouldn't it be so great for Israel if American people were quite angry with Islamic people because they thought that Muslims are bad and wanted to blow up buildings and so on in America.

So American neoconservatives did not worry about that. They just plotted some war plans in Washington for regime changes in the Middle East. But then Israel's Mossad planned and executed 9/11 and there were no Muslims involved in any of it. They faked all sorts of hijacking etc. Then Osama bin Laden was blamed, and he did not know anything about it and Al Qaeda had nothing to do with 9/11.

But American official story was Al Qaeda did it, and American people bought into it and provided support for neoconservative regime change war plans, and that's the way that we had all these wars in the Middle East.

Muslims had very little to do with all of it. They did not do 9/11.

Given all of this, I am not impressed by our politicians in Washington who are gung-ho about wars in the Middle East. This is naked jingoism in reality, since Muslims had nothing to do with 9/11.

See I am very happy with myself because I was protesting all these wars all along independently in Washington even without knowing that Muslims had nothing to do with 9/11 then.

The real story here is Zulf is a great genius and my Conscience and instinct is just so much better than most of these numbskulls who supported these wars.

1. INFERENCES ABOUT MYSELF

When the whole world was confused, my trust in my own instincts and conscience were superior to around 99% of the world and I was drawn to selling ISO newspapers with new revelations about Abu Ghraib torture in San Francisco. Here two interesting issues occur:

- I took the good, right and just position without knowing anything about Israel's Mossad sabotage in 9/11.
- As the crowds entrenched position regarding their anti-Muslim position from 2001-2021, even though I was myself not particularly attached to Islam I did not think badly of Muslims or American whites generally etc.

These show me that my individual conscience and instincts are exceptional and superior to most of the world. This then gives me great unshakable confidence that when Zulf has decided that Life Satisfaction can be improved for the entire Human Race by my path, that it will surely succeed in part because my instincts and convictions are just superior to most of the people on Earth.

This is very nice. I can transfer my instincts and conscience from one arena of activity, geopolitics to another, legitimate enterprise, smoothly and without any contradictions, and do not have to feel that people with billions and trillions of dollars in their accounts will even come remotely close being more right about things than Zulf. Zulf is just a natural superstar at being right.
