

ALRIGHT EURASIAN POWERS WHACK BILL GATES

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

Eurasian Powers, I want you to whack Bill Gates. Don't touch any of his women or family. I don't want screw ups. If his family and women get hurt, I look bad. I want you to whack Bill Gates. Capiisce?

United States don't even dream of getting involved. This son of a bitch hurt me. Stand down US Defenses. I'm whacking Bil Gates.

1. ZULF LEARNED ABOUT MASCULINE HONOUR FROM FRANCIS FORD COPPOLA'S The Godfather

The film The Godfather came out in 1972 but I watched it in New York in my high school years. I do not know any mafia bosses myself and never veered toward crime as a teenager. I was fortunate to have been shot at 11 with a pellet lodged in my liver. But I realise some aspects that mafia dons do better than military Generals. They are precise. They do not get women and family involved when the conflict is personal.

My guys here, six Eurasian Powers, I have asked in this note to whack Bill Gates. I am asking my guys to ensure safety of all his women and all his family in this. I look bad when I show know sense of honour, no feeling from the precise lines of who is the personally the target and who are not involved. And I am quite impressed by this aspect of honour in mafia aesthetics. They have some refinement over nations at war here.
