

TO AMERICAN GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

You are now facing the most fundamental challenge to the existence of the United States Government. You have always thought that a challenge to existence of the American Government and the Nation would be some sort of threat of external military invasion of some sort. So you took literally hundreds of billions from people to spend on military expenditures. Let's look at the latest outrageous amounts you take from us. I see you took $28 billion just for weapons of mass destruction, nuclear weapons and $740 billion from Pentagon. That's a lot of free dough, don't you think, American Government? You see, most people don't just take money from other people's hard work and pretend they have earned it. But you do. You do it a lot, American Government. You take people's hard earned money and then you squander it a lot.

Well, I have news for you. None of this is justified. In fact, no Muslim ever hijacked a single plane on September 11 2001. That's right. There was no Muslim terrorist threat.

So you are rather silly. You have been telling us that there are all manner of threats to our natural rights and so we have to pay for our protection. And you've been raping our coffers. I am living on disability right now while you have $768 billion to do nothing all that much. Where is the threat? Muslims with boxcutters, huh? I'll show you Muslims with boxcutters you sons of bitches. I will erase you from existence with a snap of a finger.

You see the only threat to the existence of United States Government is that you can't read English and don't know its purpose. I asked you for a year to secure my natural rights, and you've taken money, let's see $768 billion from our pockets and have been plotting wars in Asia, huh?

What is the threat to our natural rights? That is correct you are the major threats to our natural rights. We need defense from you sons of bitches. You don't do jack shit when people cut into other people's deep interior, use US War meta to bust up their body meta, obstruct their legitimate earning of $620 million and you prance around with our money and have all manner of junk that does not protect our natural rights and you think you will exist forever?

Oh you are defending us against great threats from Asia huh? Lying mother fucking sons of bitches!

Well I did like Robert Nozick's Anarchy, State, and Utopia. The existential threat to the existence of the American Government is that no one in American Government has sufficient reading comprehension skills to read the Charter of the nation, which specifies that their purpose is natural rights security, not extorting everyone's money to disrupt international peace and security with wars no one wants.

1. SOME COMMENTS ON THE LANGUAGE HERE

This emotional language might seem quite unsophisticated at first but rest assured that this is exquisitely crafted language, and the inspiration does not come from my long experience in bar brawls but certain R-rated movies of Al Pacino and Robert DeNiro and many other great Hollywood actors. Let's see if I can find an Al Pacino scene. Here is Al Pacino in And Justice For All 1979.

Arthur Kirkland : The one thing that bothered me, the one thing that stayed in my mind and I couldn't get rid of it, that haunted me, was 'why?' Why would she lie? What was her motive for lyin'? If my client is innocent, she's lying. Why? Was it blackmail? No. Was it jealousy? No. Yesterday, I found out why. She doesn't have a motive. You know why? Because she's not lying. And ladies and gentlemen of the jury, the prosecution is not gonna get that man today. No! Because I'm gonna get him! My client, the Honorable Henry T. Fleming, should go right to fuckin' jail! The son of a bitch is guilty! This man is guilty! That man, there, that man is a slime! He is a slime! If he's allowed to go free, then something really wrong is goin' on here! That man is guilty! That man, there, that man is a slime! he is a slime! If he's allowed to go free, then something really wrong is goin' on here!

2. AN EXERCISE IN IMAGINATION FOR THE READER

I would like my dear reader to examine me today.

This is me, today. Now for the main statement above, forget me. Imagine that the statement is delivered by the Arthur Kirkland character of And Justice For All played by Al Pacino.

Now read the statement with the style of Arthur Kirkland. This will allow you to understand my statement quite a bit better.
