ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

1. THE BILL GATES CONVICTION

Bill Gates has the conviction that white people are intrinsically superior to non-white people. I claim that this is a totally absurd proposition. I want people at Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Stanford, Oxford, Cambridge, and Berkeley to comment on this. You can get other universities involved too. I want them to give their actual responses to the proposition.

Second I want them to assess my evaluation of the proposition.

2. GENETIC APPROACH

It is known today, mostly due to work of many great people in biology, that the variation in all genetic code of human race, all humans living and all who have lived in the past, and all that will live in the future have some elementary features.

First, G_c , the genetic code in common, in exact letters of A, C, T, G, shared by all humans living and dead, comprise 99.9% of the total letters in every person.

This fact, reduced all considerations of genetic difference between all people to 0.1% of their genetic code.

If Bill Gates' contention that 'white people are superior' is to be evaluated, he has to give us some significant understanding of how this 0.1% can be moved around to produce a superior subrace at all, let alone claim that such a fantastic subrace exists in reality, and that such a subrace are the white people on Earth.

In other words, he is claiming something that to me is quite extraordinary. He is claiming that nature managed to move around 0.1% of the human genome in such a way that (a) those with 0.1% of the code in one composition are superior (b) those with another composition are inferior. It is very difficult for me to fathom the processes. But Francis Galton was enthusiastic about this sort of idea. I think this is not feasible even in theory.

But Bill Gates' proposition implies that: (a) nature has already actualised this fantastic ordering of genetic codes, and (b) that the superior human beings are the white people of the world.

I won't really go into the refutation business directly. Instead I would emphasize that it is a very interesting idea that nature even in principle could produce any substantial differences at all that are easy enough to detect at the genetic level.

In other words, I am more interested in the possibility of what nature can do with the 0.1% more than the Bill Gates proposition. I don't think nature has any way of even producing a clean separation at all.

3. ASSUMING THERE IS A DISCRETE DIFFERENCE ARE WHITES THE SUPERIOR SUBRACE?

This is really trivial. It's absurd. You take chess. You have two great players Vishy Anand and Magnus Carlsen. There are others but these are prominent. Most Indians cannot reach anywhere close to Carlsen's level; most whites cannot reach anywhere close to Anand's level. Therefore the ethnic superiority at least on chess is refuted.

Bill Gates proposition is a popular primitive superstition that seems to be held by many people in America. This is just like any other superstition. It's false. It's a belief that is popular and false. Over time it will be mocked and savaged and will disappear from popular beliefs.

4. I WILL SHOW YOU A SUPERIOR LADY

See this is a photograph of my teacher Lys K. Waltien, who loved me in a way that only a teacher can love a student. She believed in me, cared about my studies and progress, wrote glowing letters of recommendations for me. And I reciprocated her love with veneration even some decades after she passed away.

This is a photograph that often adorns a bedstand. She is a great lady to me, a great soul, and a true Angel in my life. She happened to be an Irish Catholic American. You see, I remember spending hours every day after school with her while she cleaned all the chewing gum from under tables about all sorts of things, and I listened to her and respected her wisdom. And I never regretted all of that. She was a deeply erudite woman and could give me direction in intellectual growth.

Now she is someone who is part of my life. I can't even imagine my life without her influence. Do you really think I will worry about minute issues of ethnicity? I have rarely met anyone as special as Lys K. Waltien. I have come across many white people throughout my life. She was a rare and special person, and our relationship was warm and good. People like Bill Gates are not good people. They are scumbag. Their thoughts about people are pure drivel and harmful for the world.

5. MY CONSCIENCE WILL DISALLOW UNITED STATES NOT KILLING BILL GATES

My beloved people are 8 billion human beings. White people in American Government are 1.4 million. Bill Gates is a grave threat to billions of people. I discovered this and it is my responsibility, therefore to eliminate him. Now I am willing to wipe out 1.4 million for peace and harmony of 8 billion any day of the week. That does not bother me. The peace and harmony of 8 billion trumps the guilt and anguish from wiping out all the white people in American Government. So that is guilt-free if necessary. I might not do that because I am also aware that I am a single person and if I don't show heart and compassion at the right moment, I will be neutralised myself, which I will wish to avoid. So that's where I stand. I am highly moral. And I am still willing to Auschwitz all white people in American Government if need be.

6. FINE I'LL TELL YOU HOW YOU CAN AVOID BEING GASSED AMERICAN GOVERNMENT WHITES

So basically you tell the world that this man, Zulfikar Moinuddin Ahmed, had looked through Adolf Hitler's Mein Kampf and he started stroking his chin a lot. And eventually he decided he could take over the world by storm by victimizing the Whites in American Government. Then you can plan out a Museum of the beautiful white lives lost to the Evil of Zulfikar Moinuddin Ahmed.

Let me show you some pictures to give you some ideas.

See this is a picture of my maternal grandmother, my siblings, mom, uncle. I am the one with the blue cat in my tee-shirt.

You can look at some of the pictures of families from the Holocaust for more haunting photographs. You should get to business, make black and white photographs of your lives and so on. That will force me to show compassion when I get the whole world quite enthusiastic about Auschwitzing the whole lot of you.

7. IN CASE I DIE JUST AUSCHWITZ 1.4 MILLION WHITE AMERICANS IN GOVERNMENT

If you do this, I want Auschwitz refurbished. For God's sake don't use the gas they used, Zyklon-B. Use a much more lethal gas [1]. If you want to gas people, gas people with real lethal gas, none of this substitute pesticide nonsense. Let me see what gases are much more effective. Never use pesticides to kill people. Totally amateur. I don't know what they are but use something that is more directly made to kill human beings, not pesticides. That's just disgusting. Why would you use pesticides to kill people? I want only American White People in service of the government picked up. You should double check to make sure they actually are not random white people who have nothing to do with United States Government. I don't want any errors at all. Don't go to the corner mall in Washington DC and pick up little old ladies doing shopping and pretend they are American Government officials. If I die, get popularity worldwide on "Auschwitzing the right people done right" campaign.

Here you have the Hungarian Jews in Auschwitz in 1944. I don't want this sort of thing. I want the white people in American government only not any Jewish people. Those are the wrong sort of people to Auschwitz. Only American white people in American Government please. Don't pick up the random people from various county fairs and dive bars. Don't get civil rights lawyers from the South. Don't get the milk delivery guys. Only American Government white people. Double check to make sure. I want you to get the food service in Auschwitz to be tip top. Don't give them moldy bread and gruel. Give them good food. Give them good ping pong tables, and cable television. Put a swimming pool and tennis courts, and add some libraries and chess rooms and other entertainment. Make sure it's all great. And then tell them "Time for your gassing" and don't use any gas that gives them all sorts of great pains and suffering. Just one-two-three dead. Ok? Do not mess up.

8. LOOK PEOPLE WHO ARE NOT ABLE TO TAKE RESPONSIBILITY FOR NATURAL RIGHTS OF AMERICANS SHOULD NOT BE IN GOVERNMENT

Those people in American Government who do not want to take personal responsibility for violations of my natural rights, please exit government service immediately because you don't belong in government at all and will most likely be killed soon. Exit government service and find something else to do right now.

The rest of you realise that United States Government is built for only natural rights security. The rest is fluff. Only natural rights security is its purpose. You pretend like you are spectators in issues of natural rights of Americans. No you are personally responsible and take the blame for all natural rights violations in this country. You can be killed for them. You can be executed for natural rights violations of people you have never met and don't care about. That is the nature of government service. Government service is not like corporate jobs where caring about revenue and other things is fine. In government service you are responsible for natural rights security of 330 million people. When their natural rights are violated you are all held responsible legitimately and will have to pay for them because that's your role. You can try to punt it however you want. But the world knows that you are responsible; but United States Declaration of Independence Preamble says so directly and unambiguously. You really should find some other job if you don't want to do this. You are responsible for all harm done to me by Bill Gates. He is a criminal but you are responsible for harm he does, not him.

9. PROJECTED TRAJECTORY OF OUTRAGE

Asians have never witnessed so much harm to anyone's meta in their history, because deep interior of people have no record in being breached at all. They will know that I was responsible for the final theoretical physics exceeding genius of Albert Einstein and Erwin Schrödinger. So they will be amazed that American Government colluded with Bill Gates to destroy me. They will consider me their Asian brother who was harmed and demand Whites in American Government be Auschwitzed. The Asian governments will be only too pleased because it's better for them if the populace is angry at American Government white people instead of at them. Then it will get to Europe. Human Rights Watch London and others will be moved by the story and get massive outrage in England, Germany, France. Then it will reach American People who will be last in the circuit. After that you'll be Auschwitzed to popular sentiments of the entire human race. Good luck with keeping supporting Bill Gates racial murders. You see, you don't understand. You think money is so important. Money is an instrumental sort of thing. It has value in a way, but the human heart is not moved only by some material things. My story will be much more powerful than money. If you don't know these things, I don't know why you chose to go into government rather than I don't know automobile parts manufacturing where it does not really matter so much.
