EXPLANATION OF HOW GANGSTERS RULE THE WORLD FOR ANTHONY BLINKEN

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

Anthony Blinken, you are a reasonable well-meaning serious man with a good background and a clean conscience. You are the Secretary of State. So let me tell you how things work. See, you and other well-meaning and honest career government service people are obviously doing what you think you ought to be doing, the standard organisation of American Government. You have the powers of your office, you are doing your thing.

Now let me tell you what's going on. There are a bunch of gangsters with a lot more power than you, whom you don't know, have never heard of, and will never hear about at all. They are ruling the entire world's resources. For them you are a puppet. You are their legitimizing little guy. Their power is higher than yours and they will not reveal themselves.

That sounds like such a conspiracy theory. You can't believe that. No, you say. The government is just how it seems.

Well, let me tell you something. I have three thousand years of aristocratic lineage from the East. And you see the KKK Goon who took power when Franklin Roosevelt died, whatsisface, Harry Truman? Well, he was a good front man for some ambitious gangsters who got a bonanza in the 1950s. So they arranged $768 billion per year to be siphoned into the behind the curtain all hush hush secret secret. Now they have American taxmoney, a nice size, allowing them to do whatever the hell they want. They will never tell you and never let you touch their world empire. They rule the world by barbaric force, murderous military might. They destroy nations and wipe out governments, take any resources they want. They don't give a damn about laws of our nation or any other.

How do I know this? Well what would you do if you wanted to rule the world with force and arranged $768 billion a year into your pot that's untouchable and special hush hush and classified classified power? Don't be naive, Anthony Blinken. It's obvious.
