BILL GATES THINKS VIRTUES ARE NOT AS IMPORTANT AS COMPUTERS

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

For a Virtue-less Malevolent Vicious Evil Man, Bill Gates is quite amusing. Bill Gates literally just said in meta to a white woman that he does not think Virtues are as important as Computers. Now that is the most hilarious joke that Zulf has ever heard from anyone in a while.

You see, Western Civilisation is built on Old and New Testaments, Homer, Aesop, and two tracts on cultivation of Virtues, Plato's Republic and Aristotle's Nicomachean Ethics. Now plebian illiterates like Bill Gates of course do not have a proper education and therefore are not actually familiar with the foundations of Western Civilisation. Bill Gates is a barbaric illiterate man who is poised to destroy all of Western Civilisation, with chants that "Natural Rights are claptrap" and "Morality is a hoax". Western Civilisation of around 2500 years he can bring down with his Evil Malevolence, all, ironically, in the name of White Supremacy.

The humour of the situation is astounding. In the name of "Whites Are Superior" he wants to destroy Western Civilisation from its very foundations so that he can wield world power, and turn all that is beautiful and good in the West to ashes and produce a Global Dystopia.

I am just amazed that United States Government does not wipe him out with heavy aerial bombardment which our government can do in its sleep, given that that's all that we seem to do at all in America, heavy aerial bombardment and destruction of life and property of totally random people who have no clue who we are. I don't understand how they suddenly become so coy when they run across someone who actually deserves it but have no problems doing it to millions of innocent people everywhere around the world.
